On the recommendation of County Surveyor Haviland, the board accepted the macadamizing by Peter Hoar of the county road leading from Mt. Eden to Alameda from the end of the road back to the point 3000 feet north in the Mount Eden Road District.

INVITED TO BARBECUE.

A. L. Henry in behalf of the Fish and Game Protective Association of Livermore, invited the board to a barbecue to be given Sunday, August 25, at that place. The communication was filed.

Requisitions for supplies for the various county offices were granted, though some of them did not set forth the cost of the articles required. At the same time, the board should have such envelopes for the purpose of advertising the carnival, because there was no doubt that that entertainment would be a benefit to the county. The matter should, he said, be referred to the District Attorney.

HAYWARDS SCHOOL MONEY.

The trustees of Union High School No. 3, at Haywards, reported that they desired $950 for the support of that school for the ensuing year. The report was filed.

ing to the court, "I mean no disrespect but I wish to say that my answer might incriminate me and subject me to punishment for a crime. I am not going to answer any question."

"Mr. Zimmer did you not testify fully about these matters before the grand jury?"

"I object," said Attorney Delmas. Zimmer did not answer and said he would decline on the same ground. He said that the jury was excused, suggested Delmas.

"It is for the present denied," answered the court.

FEARS INCRIMINATION.

"Mr. Zimmer, did you not answer the question I just asked you before the grand jury?" continued Henry.

"I should like to consult with my counsel before I answer that question," Zimmer replied.

"Mr. Zimmer did you not testify fully about these matters before the grand jury?"

"I object," said Attorney Delmas. Zimmer did not answer and said he would decline on the same ground. He said that the jury was excused, suggested Delmas.

"It is for the present denied," answered the court.

ARRESTED AS VAGRANTS BUT PUT UP $50 EACH

Although Joseph Cantor, aged 72 years, and his grandson, Abraham Cantor, aged 26 years, were able to put up $50 each as bail, they were booked for vagrancy early Sunday morning. They had been arrested at Seventh and Washington streets.

Joseph Cantor is a native of Russia. He claims Warsaw as his home and speaks with a foreign accent.

RECEIVED.

The grandson, Abraham Cantor, told the authorities that his grandfather was a revolutionary and that he was forced to leave Russia because of the sweeping orders of the Czar. The young man is a gambler and according to his own statement, while the older man is a salesman. Policemen Feely and A. B. Smith made the arrest.

After depositing bail from their well-filled pockets the two men left the city prison. When they were released, the two men were told that they had been arrested for vagrancy and that the cases went over one day.

WON; DENIED BY COMPANY Western Union Manager Declares Backbone of Strike Is Broken—Statement by Telegraphers.

WEST OAKLAND, Aug. 19.—Thos. F. Hanley, who in the absence of Deputy National President Coppas, is in charge of the telegraphers' strike at West Oakland, said this morning:

"The beginning of the second week of our battle with the Western Union and Postal Telegraph Companies finds every member of our organization who went on strike, standing in his proper purpose to win the fight for fair treatment and living wages. Despite the repeated assertions of the officials of the Western Union Company that they are able to handle business, the fact remains that the few unfair operators who are employed in the Western Union office at West Oakland, are spending their time in idleness, enforced because they have no one with whom to work at the other ends of the wires.

NO WORD FROM SMALL.

"We have received nothing new from National President Small, who is fleeing the fight in the East, and there is any thing new in the situation in this city and San Francisco. So far as the members of Local No. 34 are concerned, we are not worrying over the outcome of the fight, but are giving our attention to other matters. Our entertainment committee is now arranging for an entertainment and dance to be given at Castle Hall next Friday evening.

"Reports which we have received from other parts of the country indicate that the members of other locals of the Commercial Telegraphers' Association, are evincing some determination to win the fight, as are the members of Local 34. From New York comes the news that the operators employed in the office of the Postal Company are out solid with the exception of two men and six women. Eighty-five per cent of the members of the Western Union Company are also out in New York.

REPORTS ARE ENCOURAGING.

"Advices received from Portland and Seattle are equally encouraging. From Portland comes the news that all the operators employed in both offices are out to a man, and business is stopped. In Seattle not only are all the operators out, but the chiefs have quit work as well. Our informant states that the people of the north are already demanding a settlement, and that the companies' cease from their unreasonable attempts to crush our strike. The strike is the backbone of the public. This proves to us that the people are waking up to the fact that our demands are only just, and are ready to give us their support against the companies. From these indications, seems assured that we must win our fight.

STRIKE BROKEN, SAYS MILLER.

"The backbone of the strike has already been effectively broken and the strikers will soon be clamoring for their old positions, only to find them satisfactory and permanently filled. Assistant Superintendent Miller this morning, 'We are re-employing some of the strikers and are considering their individual applications, but there are many who will never be eligible for re-employment by this company.'

"Regarding the telegraph strikers, who contemplate giving expression to their grievances in the form of a memorial to the governor of Oregon, who is a shareholder in the Western Union Telegraph Company, in the interests of the striking telegraphers, I am not in a position to discuss at this time, so far as advice from the executive offices are concerned. The company's attitude will remain unchanged and I can see absolutely no indication that it will recede from its firm and consistent stand. It has taken in the past. The conditions in the Pacific division are so satisfactory, that the company is not inclined to me to be an absurdity.

REPORTS ARE ENCOURAGING.

"Advices received from Portland and Seattle are equally encouraging. From Portland comes the news that all the # DAUGHTER FEARS MOTHER WILL KILL HER WITH AX Causes Arrest of Well-Dressed Parent, Who Is Alleged to Be Victim of Hallucinations.

Fearing death at the hands of her mother, who is said to have threatened to split her head open with an ax, pretty fifteen-year-old Laura Rodgers, of 1074 Twelfth street, caused the arrest of her parent, Mrs. Rodgers, this morning on the charge of insanity. Mrs. Rodgers, who is a widow 34 years old, is held in the detention ward of the Receiving Hospital awaiting examination by the Lunacy Commission.

According to the story told by the pretty little miss, her mother imagines that she is in great trouble over lawsuits and for the past week has been visiting lawyers about her legal matters. She says that her mother is now engaged in a lawsuit and is very nervous. When the woman comes home at night, her daughter says she has to seek shelter for fear of being injured by the parent in one of her fits of ill temper. Mrs. Rodgers was wearing a well-dressed woman's dress and wore diamond earrings. She appears to be a woman of refinement.

SCHMITZ' OUSING IS LEGAL, COURT SAYS

Victim of a felony, is doubly unfortunate, but the fact that he may by means of an appeal ultimately succeed in establishing his innocence does not ventrile him to hold on to a public office which he is not entitled to. It is the duty of the public interest that a person accused of crime should have every opportunity to clear his name.

One is convicted of a crime when a verdict of guilty has been given and entered. This is the well-settled meaning of the term as ordinarily used in our statutory provisions, and I can see no warrant for believing that it was used in any other sense.

ANGELLOTTI GIVES OPINION.

In addition to the opinion of the Supreme Court, in which all of the justices concurred, Justice Any was asked to give an additional opinion in the matter, which reads as follows:

"While I have concurred in the foregoing, I deem it proper to add that I am satisfied that the effect of the charter provision, declaring that an officer elected to a public office, shall hold office until he is removed by the voters, is in no degree by way of punishment for any offense alleged to have been committed, but is solely for the purpose of insuring an efficient and decent discharge of the duties of the office. The provision is not a punishment, and it was deemed, could not be had during the incumbency of one under a conviction of a felony, etc. was to be applied to the office of Mayor upon the rendition of a verdict of guilty against the incumbent."

SAYS LARGE TRACTS ESCAPE

Elmhurst Man Makes Protest to Supervisors, Declaring Local Taxes Not Fair.

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors this morning the following communication regarding alleged unfair assessment of certain property was read:

"ELMHURST, Aug. 27, 1907.

"Having located at the above-named point, and having entered the real estate business, I have acquired myself with the value of land in and around Elmhurst to San Leandro creek, and got the prices from the owners for which they will sell their tracts, consisting of from two acres to two hundred acres. The farms are spot cash or half cash with interest at seven per cent per annum net.

RECORDED GRIM GETS EIGHT ELECTRIC FANS

Recorder Grim will receive the electric fans which he declares are necessary for the purpose of expelling the dust out of his office and prevent it from settling upon and destroying the books and records of the place.

At the instance of Supervisor Kelly at the meeting of the board this morning the building committee of that body was empowered to purchase eight electric fans at a cost not to exceed $12.50 each. The purpose referred to. These fans will have a voltage of 220, and will have a diameter of sixteen inches. The total cost will be $180. In support of the proposition, Supervisor Kelley said:

"It would probably be a good idea to grant the request of the recorder for the purpose of removing the dust from his office. There will be no more than eight fans required. These will be of 220 volts each and will remove the dust from the shelves and the books and from the office itself. They will cost $12.50 each. On technical company will be the cost of the fans for one year. Something ought to be done to carry out the dust of the place. This could be done by having one fan at a window which would carry out the dust and the other fans would carry up to the strength of this recommendation the board empowered the building committee to afford the desired relief.

Pauline Lyons, a negro, pleaded not guilty to the charge of grand larceny, preferred against her by Charles Valentine, who said the colored woman stole from him a diamond valued at $300. Her trial was set for October 7.

and be made to pay their share of the taxes on the small home-owner, merchant or manufacturer, and if they are not, there is a screw loose somewhere in the assessor's office.

The chair stated the correspondent should appear with the witnesses.

FOOTBALL ROAD Boulevard Can't be Constructed From General Fund, Says District Attorney.

In an opinion given to the Board of Supervisors this morning, District Attorney Brown holds that the cost of constructing the football road from High street to the limits of the city cannot be paid out of the general fund of the city. He also held that the extension of the road could be added to that proposed extension for the purpose of making the improvement extend over three miles which is one of the requirements of the law. However, if the opinion that the extension may be completed as a part of the boulevard proper and, in company with the Supervisors will visit the scene tomorrow and then look up the law with a view to ascertaining what may be done in the premises. The opinion in part in the matter is as follows:

"Under the act of the Legislature of the State of California of 1903, the payment out of the county general fund for the acquiring or construction of a road can be made only when all of the following conditions are present:

"A showing of the necessity for the construction of the road, that the road is in excess of three miles in length; that the cost of the road will exceed $5000; and that the Board of Supervisors by a two-thirds vote have determined to acquire and construct the road."

PHOTOGRAPHERS WILL BE HERE

State Association to Gather in October—Display of Work for Public.

The Chamber of Commerce is today in receipt of a letter from President McCullagh of the Photographers' Association of California, in which in behalf of the association he accepts the invitation of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce to hold the fourth annual convention in Oakland the last week in October.

REALTY GOES TO PREMIUM

Rush of Delinquents to Redeem is Index to What May Soon Be Expected.

The realty interests of Alameda County will be interested in the tax redemption statement issued by County Auditor Geo. Pierce, whose office is now busy with the application of property owners who are anxious to redeem property which has for some reason or other been allowed to go delinquent since the 1906 instalments. The rush at the Auditor's office gives a good index to the active realty market which is looked for this fall.

CLEAN-UP COMPLETE.

"The indication is that there will be very few pieces allowed to stand uncared for, which at all points in Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley, are caused everybody anticipates the active market this winter and spring in realty. "Even the owners in the outside districts are found in the vanguard of redemptions this fall. The Alameda County property, which in many instances heretofore has been allowed to stand delinquent from year to year, is now at a premium and will be sought after when the fall market opens. The redemptors will be especially interesting this year if they are not characterized by one especial point. That is, the owners and agents are not only redeeming for 1906, but are going back as far as there exists a solitary delinquency and clearing up the land absolutely."

ANOTHER INDEX.

"There is also another clear index to the healthy condition of things in our county. We have in the last month authorized at least ten tract maps to be filed by dealers who are opening new territory into residence property. Much of this is out in Brooklyn Township and along the San Leandro road, as well as in Berkeley.

"The signs of progress throughout the county should be gratifying to the business and commercial interests."

FRENCH COOK GETS WORST OF ROUGH HOUSE

August Blanco, a French cook, living at 220 Chestnut street, but who is now in the city prison, was brought before Judge Mevin in the Receiving Hospital last night when taken there by four officers in the patrol wagon, who had all they could do to keep him from making his escape. Blanco had insulted a number of women by vulgar remarks and had thrown a bottle of ketchup at one of them. Officer Crumpton placed him under arrest. He fought the bluecoat, but was obliged to leave the room and beat Blanco over the head. After he was booked at the police headquarters he pleaded guilty to the charge of disturbing the peace. He was held in the city prison.

WALSH DIDN'T ASK.

Ex-Supervisor Delmas said he had the grand jury testimony taken before him by the district attorney's office. He did not press the question, however.

WALSH DIDN'T ASK.

Ex-Supervisor Thomas Walsh was called to the stand. He told a plain story of receiving his bribe from Halstead. Delmas was not successful in getting as much additional information out of Walsh as he had been from some of the others. He found out that Walsh had talked with Burns before going before the grand jury, but Walsh said Burns' talk with him was not an admission. Walsh took most of his money from Gallagher and didn't know what it was for. He never asked.

CONTRADICTS HIMSELF.

Ex-Supervisor Longenecker was recalled by Henry to be asked a number of questions about having signed the affidavit filed in the Langdon case and introduced by the defense to impeach the present testimony of the ex-Supervisor. Longenecker testified as follows:

"George Keane, former secretary of the board, said to me, 'Tom, the state is paying across the street. All the boys are signing it. You had better go over and sign it.'"

Henry then asked Longenecker why he voted for the Home Telephone Company's franchise. Delmas objected, but the court allowed the question.

"I don't know," he said, "I was paid by its rival caused a smile to pass over the courtroom."

LAWYERS WRANGLE.

Attorney Delmas asked a question of the witness, in which Delmas gave some of the testimony given before the grand jury. Attorney Henry accused him of misconduct.

"There is no way," said Henry, "in which Mr. Delmas could have gone to this testimony unless it was wrongfully."

"I leave it to your honor," replied Delmas, "I have nothing to say."

"I submit that Mr. Delmas ought not to come in here and try to state what happened before the grand jury at any time," Judge Lavelle enquired into the matter.

ASKS FOR PROBATION.

James Murphy, a young man who has two daylight burglaries charged against him, pleaded guilty to them, both today. He asked Judge Mevin to let him out on probation. To give the matter time for investigation a continuance of three weeks was ordered.

TO LOOK AFTER FIGHT. Well-Known Young Business Man Is He Can Fill the Office of Postmaster.

BERKELEY, August 19.—Charles E. Thomas arrived in Berkeley from Lake Tahoe this morning, having out short his summer vacation to meet on the ground the charges of President Wheeler that he is not competent to handle the affairs of the Berkeley postoffice.

Dr. Wheeler's declaration to Congressman Knowland and Judge Wolfe at their conference in Wheeler's office last Saturday, that he would oppose Thomas as a candidate for postmaster, basing his opposition on the ground of Thomas' alleged inefficiency, made it necessary for the latter to leave Tahoe and prepare for a campaign on the lines laid down by Dr. Wheeler.

Thomas is in conference today with prominent citizens of Berkeley, gaining from them information of the situation and arranging for the interview with Wheeler he is scheduled to have during the day. He has not yet seen Wheeler, to make inquiry of the University president why the latter has taken up the cudgel against him in a fight that was supposed to have been settled before Thomas left for Lake Tahoe.

WHEELER'S POSITION.

President Wheeler this morning was engaged with University affairs, this being the opening day of the term when the head of the University is engrossed with campus matters. Thomas accordingly deferred his promised visit to the University president's office until a more propitious season.

WHEELER TELLS FRESHMEN GIRLS WHO TO MARRY

President Wheeler praises fraternities and tells students to shake professors' hands when they meet Savants.

"Girls, when you marry a man, marry him, because he is reliable and constant. Don't marry a man because he is strong or good looking, but marry the constant man. That's the kind of a man you want to marry. Don't be impatient about it. President + Wheeler's advice to freshmen + girls."

WHEELER TELLS FRESHMEN GIRLS WHO TO MARRY

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—College men and maidens thronged the University campus today, celebrating in customary fashion the beginning of a new semester. The first of the year 1907-08. There were greetings many, and salutations to professors, and the powers that be in all of the University halls. From a deserted section, the campus changed to a scene of life of manifold activity.

Instruction work will not begin until tomorrow, but all in readiness for each phase of this work, and the University accordingly is alive and the machinery ready to start when the button is pressed tomorrow morning by President Wheeler.

President Wheeler delivered his annual address to the freshman class this morning in Harmon gymnasium, at the first University meeting of the year. The hall was crowded to overflowing.

PRaises FRATERNITIES.

He spoke very highly in favor of the Greek letter fraternities. About them, he said in part:

"The Greek letter fraternity has come to the American college to stay and I hope the best things of the life of a member of a Greek letter fraternity. They afford very good places for dwelling and I wish every one of you could live in a fraternity house."

MET HENRY IN BACKROOM TO MAKE HIS CONFESSION

Henry and Delmas said he had the grand jury testimony taken before him by the district attorney's office. He did not press the question, however.

WALSH DIDN'T ASK.

Ex-Supervisor Thomas Walsh was called to the stand. He told a plain story of receiving his bribe from Halstead. ## SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.

The Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, operating this morning, that the situation is virtual unchanged. A gradual improvement in the service is being made, and more business is expected to be done at any time.

THE STRIKE BEGINS.

At the same time, said Thomas this morning, in spite of the extent of his private business affairs and the profit that comes to me from them, all my plans were made in event of President Wheeler's appointment of me to the postoffice of Berkeley. If I am nominated and appointed, I shall do nothing but that, and such has been my intention from the beginning.

"I proposed to have the appointment of the postal authorities, so that efficient service might be further assured by the appointment of a trained deputy. There was to be no politics, and absolutely nothing but business in the handling of the office. I had planned to give up all my business connections in Oakland, resign my position with the company, and appoint myself to the postoffice of Berkeley, to make a record for myself in the Berkeley postoffice of which a man might be proud."

HIS ABILITY.

"If it is a question of ability to attend to the postoffice affairs, I shall again be glad to speak for itself. Other people regard it as worth while to guarantee me money for my services in a business way, and I am not inclined to be so sure of my ability to conduct a large and important business."

"There are many able men in Berkeley and elsewhere who declared by their votes last year that they were tired of the office of county assessor. I suppose that record will be considered as of some importance in the argument that I am now about, my efficiency as a possible postmaster."

DISREGARD SMALL MATTERS.

The president then went on to speak about the college lives of the students, telling them that they will not always be appreciated by the world as they are now. He said that the world will be about them. But he instructed them to be patient and disregard all these things. He said that the world was full of such. He cautioned them to go with what associates to seek out and go with, and to keep away from the worse elements.

DEATH UNDER TRAIN

Party Struck and Fatally Wounded While Trying to Cross Track.

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—P. McCarty, a barber, address unknown, was ever and fatally injured at 11 o'clock last evening by the second Key Route train at the intersection of Shattuck avenue and Center street. McCarty attempted to cross the tracks in front of the approaching train. He must have misjudged the distance between himself and the train, for before he could get to the track he was struck and hurled to the pavement, the front of the leading car passing over his arm and leg. He was also fatally injured.

Immediately after the accident, the police were notified and the ambulance was telephoned for the ambulance. After several minutes of waiting, a telephone message was sent to the garage for an automobile. E. Reed of the Reed Realty company responded and volunteered to take the injured man to the hospital, but the ambulance had arrived in the meanwhile and he was removed by that vehicle.

DIES AT MIDNIGHT.—The remains of the injured man, but his name was too serious and he died at midnight. The body was removed to the morgue.

The remains were identified at the morgue as those of P. McCarty, but nothing more can be learned at present. He was about thirty-five years of age. The name P. McCarty was found in the living of his coat.

A man as the person who had been seen several days ago, that time McCarty told the officer his home was at the corner of Grove street.

PRESIDENT OF COLLEGE DIES

Death Calls Brother Genebern, Beloved Head of St. Joseph's Academy.

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—Brother Genebern, a member of the Order of Christian Brothers for fifty years, former president of Sacred Heart College of San Francisco and president of St. Joseph's Academy of Berkeley, died yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at his room in the academy building, Peralta Park, Berkeley.

By his death one of the most prominent figures in the educational circles of the Catholic church on the Pacific coast is removed. For nearly forty years Brother Genebern has been active in the work of the order in California. He was highly honored in the fraternity, which he had served for more than half a century. His golden anniversary was celebrated last April.

CAME WEST IN '65.—Brother Genebern was one of eight brothers who went to San Francisco from New York city in 1865, the year of the Civil War.

He was appointed president of the administration of St. Mary's college, which was then located in Mission road. The lay brothers who had charge from the time Archbishop Alemany founded the institution in 1863 had been unable to specialize in the work as the order in California. He was highly honored in the fraternity, which he had served for more than half a century. His golden anniversary was celebrated last April.

Brother Genebern was appointed prefect of St. Mary's, where he at once demonstrated the possession of rare abilities as a disciplinarian and as a financial manager. After the death of Pope Pius IX to take over the administration of St. Mary's college, which was then located in Mission road. # GRADUATES VISIT UNIVERSITY ON HONEYMOON WED AFTER CAMPUS WOOING UNIVERSITY MAN TO TEACH SCHOOL AT VISALIA

MR. AND MRS. R. O. MOYER.

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—Reuben O. Moyer, who was director of the University Glee Club last year, is in Berkeley with his bride, who was Miss Elsie Worden. The couple are spending part of their wedding journey in the University town, before leaving for Moyer's new field of work in Visalia. He is to be head of the department of English in the Visalia high school.

The wedding of Reuben Moyer and Elsie Worden was the culmination of a campus romance. Both were prominent in college affairs, and have many friends, who have entertained them in various ways during the last fortnight.

BERKELEY SOCIETY

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—Cards to weddings to be solemnized during the coming week have kept the postman busy during the past few days, and, from indications, the favorite day is the 21st. On that day there will be a number of ceremonies interesting to local society.

In the afternoon, Miss Louise Menzies will become the bride of Martin Kellogg Metcalf. The ceremony will be celebrated at St. Peter's Chapel, Mare Island, where the fascinating maid makes her home. A large number of Berkeley people have been included in the guest list. Miss Menzies was a member of the last graduating class at the University, where she was prominently identified with the affairs of the women students. She was a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and the Mask and Dagger society and a leader in the college smart set. Ensign Metcalf is the son of George D. Metcalf, one of Berkeley's first families. His graduation from Annapolis has been followed by his assignment to the cruiser California, and there is general rejoicing among the friends that he and his charming bride will be stationed at Mare Island, for the present at least.

The birthday of Mrs. May Phelps was made the occasion last Wednesday of a merry informal gathering, when a number of friends called to congratulate her on her birthday. The house was prettily decorated with flowers and on the table in the dining room where the refreshments were served was a bank of roses and long trailing asparagus fern. Music and song merrily passed the evening.

The informal reception held Friday by the Berkeley Lodge, No. 1002, B. P. O. E., was most enjoyable, and the wives, mothers, daughters and sisters of the members voted the affair a great success and the men folk admiring hosts.

It is planned to have the "Ladies' Day" every Friday afternoon, when several forms of entertainment will be planned for the guests. In this way the women folk of the members will be brought together and have the opportunity of becoming really acquainted.

The committee of arrangements includes J. D. Waterman, H. A. Sully, and E. T. Brown.

The dance given Saturday evening by the Berkeley Teachers' Association at the Hillside Club House was a brilliant success in every respect, and the members and their guests were loath to depart when the hour came for the scene of pleasure. The hall was artistically decorated in brilliant masses of red geraniums and long sprays of wild anemones.

One of the amusing features of the evening was an auction, at which the following articles were sold:

1. Overture "Alceste" in the Greek style. . . . . Haydn
2. Second symphony. . . . . Haydn
3. Serenade (for stringed orchestra). . . . . Tchaikowsky
4. Hungarian Dances. . . . . Brahms

TO DEDICATE HEARST MEMORIAL STRUCTURE TO BE SCENE OF INTERESTING CEREMONIES.

BERKELEY, August 19.—The formal dedication of the Hearst Memorial Mining building on the campus of the State University will be held on next Friday morning at 11 o'clock. Many prominent men of the State will take part in the formal opening of the building, which is the first of its kind in the world.

The structure is considered by mining experts to be one of the finest mining buildings in the world. Victor Henderson, secretary for the regents of the University, said yesterday: "No such buildings, whether in constructive merit, in permanence or in artistic worth, as the Hearst Memorial building and California Hall, have before been erected in this State. Students who spend four years in such an architectural atmosphere as is here being created at the University will go forth into the world with standards established as to what good building means."

The Hearst Memorial Mining building was given to the State University by Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst in memory of the late United States Senator George Hearst. The building is 151 feet wide from east to west and 227 feet from north to south. It is four stories high and the principal entrance is in the center of the south facade. The opening of the principal vestibule and museum, 40 feet wide by 80 feet long, is on the southern side by arched windows, and from above through three circular domes fifty feet high.

FINISHED IN BUFF.—This vestibule is three stories in height and is surrounded by balconies at the level of the second and third floors. It is finished throughout in buff pressed brick with marble pavements. Here will be kept a collection of models, ores and apparatus, appertaining to professional mining.

The general mining laboratory is 46 feet wide by 118 feet long and is surrounded at the bottom of the first and second floor by broad galleries which serve as corridors of communication between the various portions of the building and the outside. The west wing is occupied by the advanced and research laboratories.

The east wing of the building contains on the first and second floors the assay laboratories. The west wing is occupied by the advanced and research laboratories.

PICKPOCKET CAUGHT IN ACT

Nevada City Man Captures Thief With Hand in His Pocket.

Caught red-handed in the act of picking a fellow-traveler's pocket as the latter was in the act of alighting from the overland limited at Sixteenth street station, shortly before 1 o'clock last night, James Barry, alias Jack Walters, is now occupying a cell in the city prison.

E. A. Work, one of the proprietors of the Union Hotel in Nevada City, Cal., was the victim of Barry to the extent of a pocketbook containing a $20 banknote. It is also due to Work that Barry is in prison.

Work boarded the train at Colfax yesterday to come to Oakland. He was accompanied by his mining partner. He noticed in the car on the way here that James Barry and another man seemed pretty friendly.

GETS BETWEEN MEN.

When the train drew into Sixteenth street station, Work and his partner started for the front door of the car where in James Barry shoved himself in between the two men in a rude way. As Work was descending the car steps he felt a hand thrust into his pocket of his trousers, where he had a pocketbook with a $20 bill in it.

"I shifted my valise from right to left hand," said Work today, "and turning, grabbed Barry with my right hand. I laid onto his arm until a policeman at the depot came up, when I handed the fellow over to him."

"The train had gone on. We went back and looked for the pocketbook. It was not there. Barry did not get it. I believe that Barry had passed it to a confederate. I accompanied the prisoner to the city prison. He gave his name as Jack Walters, but two men who got from the train most as soon as we did called him Barry. He claims to be an Eastern man."

WILL PROSECUTE.

"I don't mind the loss of the $20 bill so much, but that kind of a fellow ought to be put where he cannot rob anybody else, and I will prosecute him if it costs me $100."

Barry got his hand into one of my other pockets and taken my purse he might have got away with a couple of hundred dollars."

Work today swore to a complaint charging James Barry with robbery. The police did not detain the two men who called at the prison to see what was coming to Barry when he was taken there.

A man's wife should always be the same, especially to her husband, but if she is weak and nervous, and uses Carter's Iron Pills she cannot be, for they make her feel like a different person. They all say, and their husbands say so, too.

TO CUT AID FROM PRIVATE ASYLUMS

One of the next moves which will be made by the Board of Supervisors will be the cutting off of supplies from private institutions where indigents are sheltered.

At the meeting of the board this morning it was shown that such aid was going to an insane asylum, the King's Daughters simply because the recipient had been in receipt of it before he became an inmate of that institution.

Superintendent Mitchell said that he thought it at the time to cut off the species of aid had arrived. If one inmate in such an institution was entitled to the aid, all of them were entitled to the same favor, and if this relief was given to one institution of this kind, it would be given to all.

It was decided that at a meeting which would be held later this afternoon and discussed and be finally disposed of.

SUITCASE STOLEN.

Claus Carlson of room 21 of the Appelland House asserts that his room was entered Saturday evening by means of a pass-key, and a suitcase valued at $5 stolen.

Albany Ordered to Leave Tomorrow for Hurried Voyage to Central America.

The vessel carries a quantity of ammunition for the cruiser Charleston and will take on stores, coal and ammunition from the yard. Owing to the congested conditions along the quay wall the warship will not steam up to the docks, but will be loaded from lighters.

The work will be rushed, as the cruiser has orders to proceed to Central America tomorrow to relieve the cruiser Milwaukee, which is now protecting American interests in the insurrection zone.

Uncle Sam is having a strenuous time watching the Japanese sea-pouchers at Pribilof Island, Alaska, and keeping peace in Central America, and the Albany is to lose no time joining the Milwaukee and taking what ever steps may appear necessary to protect American interests.

He asked a reduction of $11,500 on his real estate on Washington street between Third and Eleventh streets, which is assessed at $15,500 by the city assessor, and was assessed as $50,000 by the county assessor. On his property on the north side of Twelfth street between Washington and Broadway, he asked a reduction from $45,000 to $45,000.

The other applicant for a reduction is M. Wolosohn. He asserts that a lot 25 feet frontage by 100 feet deep on the west side of Madison street, 96 feet north of Tenth street, is erroneously assessed at $3600, and he asks that the assessment be made according to its true cash value.

CONTRA COSTA PROMISES TO FIX TUNNEL ROAD

At the meeting of the board of supervisors this morning Supervisor Mitchell said he was glad to see Wilbur Walker of the Merchants Exchange present, as he understood the exchange had "roasted" the board because the road in the tunnel was in a bad condition. It was the place of Supervisor Rowe to answer the charge but he was absent from the city. He had, however, visited the tunnel and found it in a good condition. Where the road was bad was in the Contra Costa end of the tunnel.

Walker said the Merchants Exchange had never done anything save commend the supervisors for the manner in which they kept the road both within and leading up to the tunnel on the Alameda county side of the line. He had also conferred with the supervisor in Contra Costa who had charge of the tunnel on that side of the divide and the official had promised to have the road put in good condition, but nothing has been done up to the present time.

RUSH OF SCHOLARS OVERCROWDS SCHOOLS

Superintendent of City Schools J. W. McElmonds is much worried today over the numerous applications of children for privileges of attending the local schools. He stated this afternoon that in two or three other schools there were so many new applicants that he hardly knows what to do with them. At the close of school on Friday last the reported attendance at the schools was about five hundred in excess of the attendance last term.

ARRESTED BOYS AS FOOTPADS

The Oakland police last night arrested two young men accused of highway robbery at San Leandro. They are George and John Goetz, 22 years old, a native of Portugal. It is said that they stood up to a carload of mail carriers on the street and robbed him of $12. His friends came to Oakland and furnished the police with a description of the alleged robbers. They will be sent to San Leandro for trial.

A car of the Mission and Polk and Larkin line had become blocked by the breaking down of a vegetable wagon, and a crowd of toughs gathered and hooted the efforts of the carmen to remove the obstruction. The hoots soon grew to more violent outbursts and several rocks were thrown through the windows of the cars.

MARTINEZ, Aug. 19.—Julio Lopez, Jose Zamudio and Brigid Espinoza were arrested last evening by Sheriff Veale on charges of highway robbery. Their alleged victim was Edwin Camp, who stated that he was held up by the three above named and robbed of $75.

The crime was committed in broad daylight near Corcoran's roadhouse, three miles east of Martinez.

Pearl Frisbey, the aeronaut, whose wife was burned to death at an attempted balloon ascension near Martinez two weeks ago, is here in the county jail on a charge of threats against life.

The alleged misdemeanor occurred at Fairview Park yesterday afternoon, when another balloon exhibition was being held. Frisbey was in an intoxicated condition and Constable C. H. Palmer of Martinez ordered him to leave the grounds. Thereupon, it is alleged, Frisbey turned on the officer and threatened his life.

Speaking Again

of puns, I heard one the other day that I believe to be original with the narrator—none other than our old friend Bobby Burns. Bobby asked me the difference between a cobbler and a judge. I promptly bit on it and Bobby explained that "the cobbler gets up from the bench while the judge comes down." That is certainly a very witty distinction, but then it depends in a measure on what kind of a judge is being considered. All good judges do not sit on high benches or even in grandstands. A good judge of coffee may be a very lowly citizen and yet be a person of admirable understanding. Have you ever tried Lehnhardt's Mocha coffee?

COTTON GRADER FAR FROM COTTON FIELDS

John Goodnight, who says he is a cotton grader, was arrested yesterday for robbing a carload of mail carriers on the street and robbing him of $12. His friends came to Oakland and furnished the police with a description of the alleged robbers. They will be sent to San Leandro for trial.

BANQUET TO NAVY TONIGHT

Vallejo Is Host to Prominent Officials and Officers on Inspection Tour.

VALLEJO, Aug. 19.—The city of Vallejo will do herself proud this evening, when the Chamber of Commerce has its guests a party of representative naval officials from the national capital.

Among the noted visitors will be Secretary of the Navy, Admiral Capps and Coville, Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, Holliday, Secretary of the Department of Commerce and Labor Oscar Strauss, Senator Perkins and Congressman Knowland, Needham, McKinlay, Hayes and Endeavour. They were met upon their arrival by a committee from the Chamber of Commerce and accompanied about Mare Island on a tour of investigation.

In the evening the Chamber of Commerce will banquet the official guests, and the affair promises to be the most elaborate one ever held in this city. The navy yard will be represented by Admiral Lyon and heads of the departments. The torpedo-boat Farragut brought Secretary of Navy Metcalf, Rear-Admiral W. C. Capps and Rear-Admiral N. C. Cowles to the yard.

During last week the Farragut went to San Francisco with Admiral Lyon aboard and only minutes, under one hour, today the vessel had all three bidders going that a fast run might be made.

WAS QUICK ABOUT SAYING NOT GUILTY

Before Fred Miles could be arraigned for the crime of attacking Mrs. Carrie E. Wells he arose to his feet and shouted "Not guilty" this morning in Judge Melvin's court. Miles was sitting in the jury box with several other prisoners when his name was called by Judge Melvin. Attorney Frank Rawson stepped up to the bar and was expecting Miles to make a statement of his guilt and then to the reading of the information by the court clerk. Miles did not wait for anything, but as soon as he heard his name called he responded with a denial of the charge preferred against him. The little motion created by his premature pleading caused a smile from the court and attorneys who heard Miles make the same statement last week when he was in the courtroom. His trial was set for September 19.

DIVORCE RIGHT SAYS PASTOR

Swedenborgian Minister Declares "Unholy Wedlock Existing Without Love."

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—That marriage without love was no marriage at all and that the stigma usually attached to a divorced person should be pinned to the one living in a loveless marriage was the burden of an address delivered by the Rev. Dr. Ronden-Pois in the Swedenborgian Church in O'Farrell street yesterday. Taking his text from the Bible quotation beginning "Judge not," he pleaded for laws that should enable a man who had been yoked with one not his soul affinity to free himself and seek in fellowship with another the conjugal love "that is the only salvation of humanity." He said:

"Conjugal love or marriage love is the conjunction of two minds in perfect unity. It is so in heaven and should be the same on earth. Marriage love is the conjunction of wisdom and love; woman is the love seeking wisdom; man is the wisdom seeking love. It is chaste and eternal. Without it marriage cannot exist. The coronation of marriage is only the recognition of the love which already exists or is supposed to exist. It is expedient on earth, but will not be necessary in heaven. So the plenary separation of minds is divorce, and legal divorce is only the recognition of the abolition of love, which is already internally injured."

LOVE MUST BE FREE.

"I wish to go on record against the forces of conservatism which are arrayed against reform. The absence of conjugal love substitutes a unhealthy love of sex for the chaste love which exists between the angels who are all one man, one woman. Conscience is of hell. Love must be free. It is the only way to the abolition of love, which is already internally injured."

"All mistakes should be rectifiable, most of all the momentous one made in a false marriage. We should help to remove the stigma which the church has attached to divorced persons and put it rather on those who live without love in an unholy wedlock. Women should have some means of escape from cruel ill treatment by their husbands."

Robbery Case Set.

The trial of James Reed, the alleged robber, who is said to have stolen a tray containing $1800 worth of diamonds from the P. C. Fulse jewelry store, was set by Superior Judge Melvin this morning for September 3.

BOY CAUGHT BETWEEN CARS AND INJURED

While jumping on and off of the freight cars at Stockyards last night, seventeen-year-old Oliver Stridbridge of 1819 Ninth street caught his left foot between the bumpers of two cars when they were coupled together and sustained a painful crush that nearly cost him his foot, and in falling to the ground he ran a board through his mouth. Steward Borchert at the Receiving Hospital removed several large pieces of wood from the hole in the lad's face after he had dressed the wounded limb.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

In no other disease is a thorough cleansing of the blood more necessary than in Contagious Blood Poison. The least particle of this insidious virus will multiply in the circulation and so thoroughly contaminate the blood that no part of the body will be exempt from the ravages of this powerful disease. Usually the first symptom is a little sore or ulcer, insignificant in itself, but soon the blood becomes so contaminated that the mouth and throat ulcerate, glands in the groin swell, hair and eye-brows come out, copper-colored spots appear on the body, and frequently sores and ulcers break out on the flesh to humiliate the sufferer. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison by purifying the circulation. It attacks the disease in the right way by going down into the circulation, neutralizing and forcing out every particle of the poison, and making this fluid pure, fresh and health-sustaining. The improvement commences as soon as the patient gets under the influence of S. S. S., and continues until every trace of the disease is removed from the blood, and the sufferer completely restored to health. Not one particle of the poison is left for future out-breaks after S. S. S. has purged and purified the blood. Book on the home treatment of this disease and any medical advice desired free.

Grazing in the Forest Reserves.

The annual report of grazing on the forest reserves for the fiscal year 1906-07 makes the extraordinary showing that nearly 2,500,000 more sheep and goats and approximately 200,000 more horses and horned cattle were pastured on the reserves during the year than in 1905-06. The fees collected from the owners of the flocks and herds amounted to $857,856.83 against $514,682.87 in the preceding fiscal year.

The astonishing feature in the report is the revelation which is made in it that pasturing is increasing in the forest reserves instead of diminishing and that the greater increase is represented in the flocks of sheep and goats whose capacity for the destruction of young timber growth, on which the renewal and perpetuation of the forest reserves are dependent, is proverbial. In fact, it was the inroads made by these flocks on the forested public domain which influenced largely the creation of the reserves, for, wherever they feed, they leave nothing but the bare ground in the rear. The extent of the damage these flocks are still doing through the browsing of the young tree growth depends largely upon the limitations placed by the chief forester and the forest wardens on the grazing grounds in the forest reserves. There are large areas in most of the forests where no young timber growth exists, but such openings are usually marsh lands or rocky slopes which do not attract sheep. The sweeter undergrowth of the timbered area and the tender shoots of the young saplings seduce them into the forest, where they become a real source of damage. There is not the same objection to the herding of horses and horned cattle in the forest reserves, for they crop only the grasses and the shrubbery growing between the timber which, if left unpastured, simply increases the danger from fire when it cumbers the ground after ripening and drying.

The one satisfactory feature about the report, however, is that the sheep and goat owners and the cattlemen of the country are compelled to pay something to the government for fodder. Formerly they used the forests and every other part of the public domain as pasture lands, for the use of which they did not pay anything. What made the matter worse was that most of the owners of the flocks of sheep and goats which were destroying the young forest growth were, as they are now chiefly, alien Basques from the south of France who had no legal or moral right to enjoy any favor on the public domain.

Source of a Wave of Crime.

The charge publicly made by a New York police commissioner that within the last few months a wave of crime has swept over the Eastern metropolis, and that it is due to the influx of disorderly foreigners, chiefly Italians, has been widely commented upon by the Italian newspapers. The great majority and the more reputable and influential among them are frankly admitting the truth of the police commissioner's assertion.

It is curious to note, however, that while a former consul-general who was located at New York attributes the prevalence of crime in the Italian quarter, which he says contains over 300,000 of his fellow countrymen, to the neglect, carelessness and undermanning of the metropolitan police, Cardinal Casetta, one of the richest and most influential members of the sacred college at Rome, says these crimes are committed by "miserable specimens of the race" which the priests in some places "have been forced to exclude from the churches." The Cardinal also recognizes that it is an evil phenomenon of immigration to the United States which it becomes the duty of the parish priests in this country to eradicate.

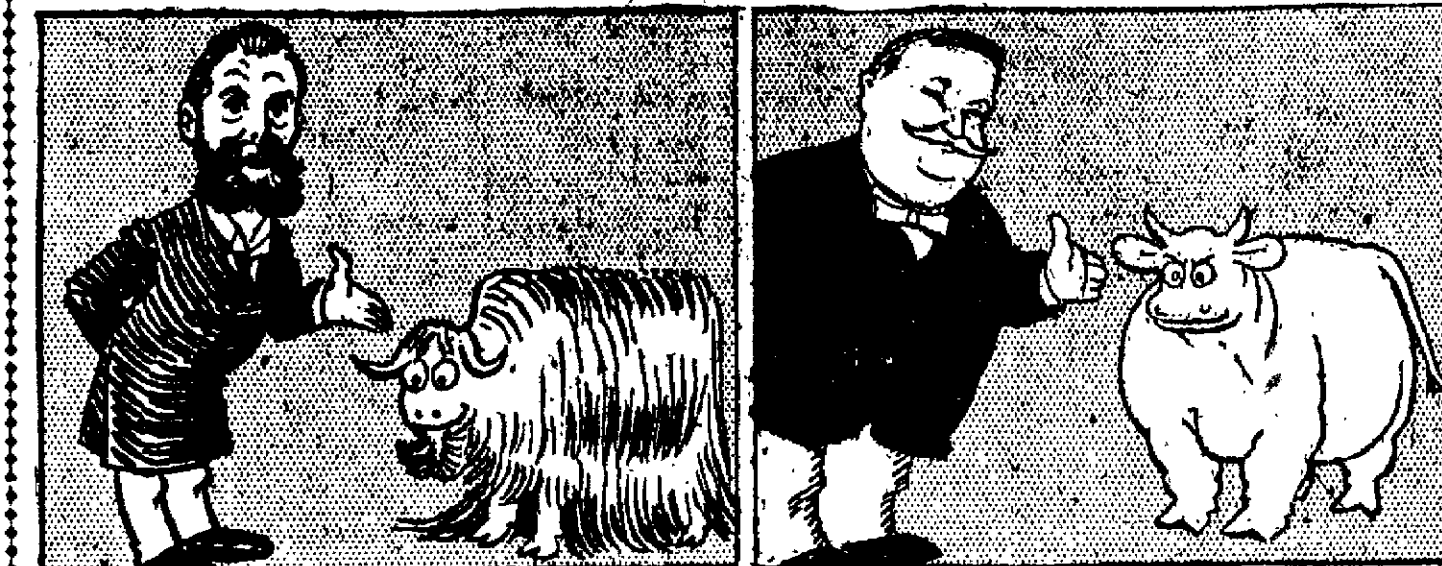

While there may be more or less truth in the statement of the ex-Italian consul-general that inefficient police patrol of the Italian quarter is the main cause of the prevalence of crime there, that is not the real root of the evil. Cardinal Casetta's statement comes nearer to it, when he charges the criminal record of his countrymen to "miserable specimens of the race." But he is wide of the mark in the suggestion of the remedy, by passing the work of curing an evil which he recognizes as a product of Italian immigration to America to the Roman Catholic priesthood in the United States. The source of the trouble is in Italy itself. The Italian government is, moreover, in a large measure responsible for it, which the over-liberal laws of the United States relating to European immigration have aided and abetted. Being unable to control its native criminals who have organized and maintain powerful societies for murder and rapine, under its very nose, the Italian government has facilitated their migration to this country, into which they have gained admission through the laxity of the immigration laws. We have been allowing Italy and some other European nations to dump their criminals and social pariahs on our shores by the thousands annually, leaving us to work out the problem of their redemption or control—a problem which their own governments have neglected to attempt to solve or have been incapable of solving. Their organized criminal societies are, moreover, not confined to New York. They are scattered all over the country, and the evil is growing to such proportions that nothing short of the closure of our ports to all foreigners, except to such privileged classes as are provided for in the exclusion laws that are now in force, and the wholesale deportation of criminal aliens to the countries whence they came, will ever correct it. It is only through the adoption of drastic immigration measures that notice can be effectively served on the Italian and other European governments of their responsibilities to a friendly nation regarding the care and the control of their own subjects, particularly those of known criminal tendencies. Moreover, it would seem to be more in order for the cardinalate at Rome to exert itself toward purifying the source of the evil, which is on Italian soil, than to call upon the priesthood of this country to eradicate what has grown rank through its primary neglect when under its jurisdiction.

Every now and again something is discovered which upsets all theories and estimates regarding the sources and duration of the world's fuel supply. In the East Indies enormously productive mineral oil fields have recently been uncovered, one well in the island of Java having, it is said, a daily flow of 7200 barrels. Borings through the chalk beds underlying the British metropolis have revealed the presence of new coal measures of great thickness which are believed to extend over an area of many hundreds of square miles. Now another coal field has been tapped in South Lancashire, abutting the great moorland of Astley, Chat and Irlam, which experts estimate will yield 40,000,000 tons of an excellent quality of fuel. It is folly to assume that the world's fuel supply will in fact ever be exhausted, for combustion is merely a disintegration of chemical elements which nature is reuniting at a rate faster than man is separating them.

The Chevra Gemilus Chasudim is a benevolent Jewish society organized in San Francisco for the purpose of aiding the worthy distressed of the race to help themselves. This is done by lending them such small sums of money as will enable them to tide over their difficulties and thereby recover a position of independence. These loans are made without interest and without any security other than an honest intent to return the money later.

At the society's annual meeting held yesterday, at which several Oaklanders were present, the president reported that during the few years the organization has been in existence it has loaned out in small amounts to deserving applicants about $40,000 which was returnable in weekly installments of $1 or less, and that the total loss suffered has been under 5 per cent. Moreover, the remarkable showing was made that there has been no default on the part of any borrower except through death, nor has the society ever endeavored to enforce payment through legal process.

We doubt whether any other charitable organization in existence can duplicate the record thus made by this Jewish free loan society. It exemplifies not only the highest standard of honesty on the part of the beneficiaries who were trusted on no better guarantee than their personal pledge to repay the money loaned, but a rare degree of business sagacity and a perfect judgment of human character on the part of the society's officers, otherwise money would have been loaned to unworthy persons and lost through their dishonesty.

POET RETURNS FROM OREGON WILL ERECT NEW CHURCH

Joaquin Miller Rests Again at "The Heights" After Trip of Campaigning.

Joaquin Miller, "Poet of the Sierras," has returned from Oregon and is resting at his home, "The Heights," in the hills back of Oakland after his campaign for the position of United States Senator of Oregon. One object of Miller's visit was to deliver a Fourth of July oration to his old friends and neighbors at Canyon City, and the reception accorded him was most affectionate.

According to his own statement, one of the things of which Miller is most proud is the modest part that he recently took in helping to build a $10,000 chapel for the little ones of the Fred Finch Orphanage near Diamond. "I want that put down as a fair mark in my favor," he said.

The poet is in good health and spirits after his journey to the North.

FRACTURES HER SKULL IN FALL FROM TRAIN

While attempting to alight from a Key Route train at A street station in North Oakland yesterday morning, Miss Della Leahy, who is employed as a domestic at the Rose Valley home of John Martin, the San Francisco capitalist, missed her footing and fell to the ground, sustaining injuries which probably will result in death.

The young woman was removed to Providence Hospital, where Dr. G. G. Reale found that her skull was fractured. At the time of the accident Miss Leahy was on her way to visit the family of her brother-in-law, Pooleman McTigue, who lives at 1114 North and Linden streets.

Christian Denomination to Build Home at Grand Avenue and Webster Street.

The First Christian Church Society of this city, which is now meeting in Hamilton Hall, is to have a place of worship of its own, and the location will be the southeast corner of Grand avenue and Webster street, practically opposite the rejuvenated St. Paul Episcopal Church.

The first step in this direction was the endorsement yesterday by the congregation of the proposed trade of a lot now owned by the society which is situated at the corner of Fourteenth and Jackson streets for the lot referred to at the corner of Grand avenue and Webster street. The lot on Jackson street is 55x150 feet, while that at Grand avenue and Webster street has a frontage of 107 and a depth of 190 feet.

It is the intention of the society to soon build a tabernacle on the new site and replace it later with a more substantial and durable structure.

FACE SEVERELY CUT IN FALL FROM TRAIN

In attempting to alight from a local train at the Sixteenth street station last night, John Nasaro of Rodeo fell to the ground and received several severe cuts and bruises about the head and face. Edward Bonhart, at the Receiving Hospital, took several stitches in the gash under Nasaro's left eye.

Is Never Too Much To Learn about Housekeeping

Home is woman's sphere. We have seen great and good women with careers, but we can't all have such careers as I have in mind. While we can preserve all the good housewives, education is a good thing as far as it goes, but no girl ever did or can learn too much of the art of housekeeping and home-making. I've kept my own home, as well as homes for others, and am proud of it. I've had fifteen years of business experience, too, handling and overseeing as high as 150 people, and I stay home for me.

MRS. ELIZABETH ALLEN,
Cottage avenue, East Oakland.

Tends Toward Favoring Ideas of Mr. Schwab

Mr. Charles Schwab is not far from right, but I do think that a girl should learn a little Latin, Greek literature, music and cooking; also how to care for a home. The cook and the caring for a home is as important as the literature, Latin, Greek and music. You see we need them all when we marry and raise children. I will tell you why. I had but little education, and now when our children ask me anything about literature,

Who Do You Think Is Right?

Here is a chance for the women readers of the women's page of THE TRIBUNE.

Charles M. Schwab, the millionaire steel man, says that the sphere of a woman begins at home. Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, society leader and brilliant leader of fashion, says the sphere of woman is where she chooses to make it. Mr. Schwab says that marriage is always the goal of woman, and Mrs. Fish says marriage is a minor consideration to a career.

WHICH OF THE TWO DO YOU BELIEVE IS RIGHT?

THE TRIBUNE will pay $20 for the best letter on this subject. Send in your opinion. The contest will remain open until September 15. Write plainly on one side of the paper, and write clearly, limiting your letter to one hundred words. Address, "Women's Page Editor, THE TRIBUNE, Oakland, Cal."

music or any of their studies, I can't always answer them. But I can cook, and am a good housekeeper, but I do so miss my education. I have four fine big children, three girls and one boy, and I am going to do my best to give them a good education and teach them all how to cook and care for a home.

NELLIE S. SCHWARTZ,
1905 Ninth street, Alameda.

Career Makes Every Girl Independent

I have just finished reading Mr. Schwab's opinion of "A Woman's Sphere." Mr. Schwab certainly must be a single man or he would not make such statements. I am surprised, as you seldom hear of a wealthy man marrying a cook.

Imagine the daughter of a millionaire cooking, mending and washing dishes. If she does this she is not making the best of the opportunities God has given her. I imagine Mr. Schwab would be very much disappointed in a daughter who had no accomplishments of any sort. Of course knowing how to do a thing and doing it are two very different things.

It is well enough for a girl to understand housework but as for putting aside her music, French and literature, in favor of washing dishes, cooking and darning socks, I say No.

A career makes a girl independent and she is then not obliged to marry for a home. She can support herself until the right man comes along.

SOCIETY WOMEN DANCED WITH PAINTED BRAVES

Faddism Picks Up the Noble Red Man

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 19.—The celebration of New Perce Indians, just closed at Spalding, Idaho, was the most noteworthy, from many points, that this tribe has ever held. These celebrations are a yearly event with the Indians, and are the means of instilling into the braves the patriotism which is possessed by few tribes of the Northwest.

The striking feature of the celebration this year, aside from the gorgeous war parade and war dance, was the ball held on the evening of July 4. For the first time in the history of this country society women from Spalding and surrounding country joined in the dance, and painted and feathered braves swung dainty maidens, clad in white gowns, through the mazes of the walls and mazes.

DANCED WITH SQUAW. Then the husbands, brothers and sweethearts of the women seized the blanketed squaws who hung about the big platform and joined in the dance with a zest that made the occasion decidedly informal and mirth-provoking.

The tomtom, the ancient instrument of the Indians, was joined by the brass band of the town. The Ki-ki of the Indian braves mingled with the shrieks of the white women as they swung 'round and 'round the circle. Never before in Idaho, say Indian authorities, has such a scene been witnessed, and it foreshadows, they declare, a closer relation and a more friendly feeling between the whites and Indians.

The New Perce Indians are a fairly well civilized tribe, and have made great strides in agriculture. They have had several splendid dealers, among whom is Chief Moses, the present chief.

NATURE OF CELEBRATION.

These yearly celebrations are held in the historic valley where Henry Spalding, a missionary, built the first mission west of the Rocky mountains, about 1850 or a little later. It was down in this valley that Lewis and Clark passed on their trail to the Northwest, and it was here that a noteworthy conference was held, of which much is told in the history of that expedition.

At the celebration last week Indian Agent Lipps was introduced to the assembly by Chief Moses, who said his people knew why the day was celebrated. After the program came the parade, participated in by about 1000 braves, gorgeously bedecked in paint and feathers. Then followed the war dance, which was presided over by Chief Moses, while nearly a thousand whites from the surrounding country looked on.

In the evening there was a reunion of the family friends, and to say there was a general good time and a most pleasant one, would be putting it mild—every minute was one avalanche of pleasure, and Mr. and Mrs. Mendelson enjoyed the occasion as much as the young people, and it was, no doubt, one of the happiest events

Couple Voted It Was a Complete Failure

COLUMBUS, Ind., Aug. 19.—The sensational advocated trial marriage, advertised as a cure for all evils of marriage and divorce, is emphatically declared to be a failure by George and Bessie Layman of this city, who have tried it for five years.

The separation took place on their wedding anniversary and the first day on which under their prenuptial agreement they could separate.

For five years they tried each other—had then parted, voting marriage a failure and blessing their foresight in agreeing to get married for a stated term. Furthermore they especially the wife—declare trial marriage a mistake and they are willing to testify to the truth of the declaration.

George Layman, a young thimble, living then in Minneapolis, found that Miss Bessie Holmes was his heart's desire. As a love affair the quest of Miss Holmes' heart was not unusual. There were the drives and strolls, and when the question of marriage was broached Miss Holmes was willing.

STARTED AS JOKE. Even during their courtship, but more as a joke than anything else, they began talking of what they should do when they grew tired of each other. Each was pos-

CONTRACT THE COUPLE ENTERED INTO. "We, the undersigned, George Layman and Bessie Holmes, hereby agree to live together as husband and wife for a period of five years beginning this, the tenth (10th) day of June, in the year 1902. At the expiration of the said period of five years we hereby agree that if either the said George Layman or the said Bessie Holmes Layman, his wife, has grown tired of the other, or if any other reason is known why there should be a separation there shall be no bar to a legal separation construed by this marriage of the parties heretofore mentioned; and if the said parties heretofore mentioned shall separate at the expiration of five calendar years and not live together as husband and wife for a period of thirty (30) days or either party shall file an action in the proper court for a complete and absolute separation, and the restoration of maiden name to Bessie Holmes Layman shall not be contested by said husband, provided that he becomes the defendant in said action. Said date of separation shall be on the tenth day of June in the year 1907."

It is nothing over would mar the happiness which was soon to be theirs, but the joke was carried out and when they secured their marriage license from the county clerk at Minneapolis they decided to have a marriage contract recorded at the same time.

About one year ago Mr. and Mrs. Layman came here to live. Their honeymoon had been ended some time ago, but they were still happy together and reference to the marriage contract was seldom made. A few months ago Miss Holmes, the 18-year-old sister of the wife, came from Indianapolis to Columbus on a visit. She wanted to be entertained and Mrs. Layman started to play the hostess.

JEALOUSY CAME. Sometimes one man came to call on Miss Holmes and sometimes two came. Mrs. Layman helped with the entertaining and this aroused the ire of the husband. He also blames a local skating rink for causing trouble in the family circle and where nothing but kind words had been heard in former years the rows of family life became frequent.

Affairs in the Layman family did not improve to any great extent and finally the husband decided he had reached the point where patience ceased to be a virtue. So when the tenth of June arrived, the wedding anniversary, Layman hunted up the marriage contract and showed it to his wife. He informed her that the five years was up; that he had grown tired of her actions and, in fact, tired of her, and he then and there invited her to take her sister and leave. Mrs. Layman did not think of the marriage contract being used for any serious purpose, but she at length was convinced that her husband was in earnest.

A Fascinating Woman's Power

Why is beauty alone not enough? This is a woman's query of herself, and it is but natural it should be answered by a woman. This is what a woman writer has to suggest on the subject:

The greatest sorceresses in the world's history, she says, the women whose influence over men has been the most universal, have not been remarkable for their beauty. When they possessed beauty it was but one of their charms. Throughout all the past the women who have "made history" were women of great charm of manner and great tact; women who understand how to interest men.

Physical charm does not always necessitate beauty. Many of the most fascinating women in the world's history—women who have inspired great love and helped mould the destiny of nations—were devoid of actual beauty.

But they possessed the charm of manner and the expression, and the subtle, magnetic quality which leaves the impression of beauty upon the beholder. When beauty of face and form is supplemented by these attributes the world gives way before it. When it is devoid of them it is often as ineffectual as a snow image to arouse more than a passing notice.

SHE MADE SOCIETY "SIT UP AND TAKE NOTICE"

Hostess Gives Lobsters and Lemons as German Favors

BAY HEAD, N. J., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Ethel Abercrombie Fell made the fashionable "sit up and take notice" with a German that she gave there last week. It was one of the smartest of the seaside affairs of the season, and evidenced Mrs. Fell's originality and wit.

For instance, among the favors for the men she included lobsters and lemons, and the women got peaches. There were other favors, of course, such as silver ash trays and canes, parasols, poke bonnets and powder boxes.

Mrs. Fell is the divorced wife of Robert Gratz Fell, who, since his separation from her, married Miss Florence Biddle Adams. There were several rumors of Mrs. Fell's engagement, too, but as yet they have not got beyond rumors.

She is a daughter of Frank T. Abercrombie, superintendent of the New York division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and is considered one of the prettiest young women in Philadelphia society.

QUEENS WHO ARE TALLER THAN THEIR KINGS

It is a curious fact that most of the principal kings of Europe are shorter than their consorts.

King Edward is six inches shorter than Queen Alexandra. The Tsarina is quite a head taller than the Tsar. The Emperor of Germany is of medium height, but the Empress is tall, and that is why the Kaiser will never consent to be photographed beside his wife, unless she sits while he stands.

The King of Italy hardly comes up to the shoulders of Queen Helene; the King of Portugal, though by no means a little man, is certainly shorter than his wife, and the Queen of Denmark simply towers above her husband.

EMANCIPATION

Pies and puddings and beds to make,
Roasts to cook and cakes to bake;
Work and work till set of sun—
Woman, your work is never done.
But why it is so
I do not know.

Who in the world invented pies,
Puddings and oakes and roasts, likewise
Did woman herself the way thus pave
To live her life a cook-stove slave?
And if it be so,
I'd like to know.

This is the day of inventions great,
Let woman herself emancipate—
Pie and puddings and cakes and all,
Too long she's been their willing thrall.
I say, it is so,
Because I know.

This day we give the world glad news—
No more for us the fires and stews;
We'll frolic in season and out of season,
And green things cooked in nice clean ways.
And as it is so,
You ought to know.

—Frank Fair.

PRINCESS GETS ENTHUSED AND DANCES THE LIMIT

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The splendid and exclusive ball given at the German Embassy was practically the last big function of the London season. It was chiefly remarkable for the reason that the Princess of Wales, who seldom dances anything but the formal state quadrilles, danced with various partners in the waltzes throughout the evening. She was, in fact, almost as energetic as Princess Patricia of Connaught, who never misses a single dance.

The awkward thing about royalty at London balls is the fact that the royal ladies must find their own partners. When a princess attends a ball, she sends for a partner whom she intends to honor with a dance. If the young man is engaged, he must, of course, cancel the engagement and obey the royal command. The Princess of Wales tells an amusing story of a dance she attended soon after her marriage where a young and very bashful peer was "commanded" by the Princess to dance with her. The youthful peer was so overcome that all he managed to stammer out was, "Sorry, madam, but I'm engaged for this one."

Mrs. John Jacob Astor, whose social success this season in the most exclusive aristocratic set has been extraordinary, was admitted to be the handsomest woman at the ball. She wore a black satin gown with wonderful sleeves of pink tulle fastened with sapphire and diamond ornaments.

WOMAN WINS FORTUNE IN PEARLS

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Pearls worth £20,000, which belonged to the late Duchess of Sutherland, were the subject of an action in the court of chancery. The duchess was a daughter of the late Lord Howard de Walden, and had residences in Grosvenor place and Florence. At the time of her death four rows of her gems were in Florence, while an additional six rows were in the keeping of a London bank. She bequeathed the ornaments at her bankers to her niece, Miss Henrietta Ellis, and directed that if her pearl necklace was in London when she died it was to be forwarded to her Italian executors. These executors claimed all the pearls, while Miss Ellis stated that the duchess intended to leave to her those kept at the bank. The court decided for Miss Ellis.

LYCEUM, OF LONDON, ONE OF WORLD'S LARGEST WOMEN'S CLUBS, TO ESTABLISH BRANCH "CIRCLES" IN ALL LARGE AMERICAN CITIES

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The Lyceum Club of London is one of the largest women's clubs in the world. It is composed of so-called "circles" made up of London women and residents of various European countries. The club intends to have a new feature—the establishment of circles in all of the great cities of the world, to act as auxiliaries to the central club established here.

Women in any city wishing to come to London for either pleasure, work or professional reasons may notify their local circle of their intention and that circle will find out just what the women hope to do in London, and will communicate with the president of her particular country at the Lyceum Club. When the woman reaches London she will be met and assisted in whatever way is possible by her countrywomen in the Lyceum club.

The idea is that of Miss Constance Smedley, the founder of the club, and

"CLUB GIRLS AND WORKING GIRLS BRING ON CONDITION THAT'S DEPLORABLE"

"First Reduce Man's Wages, Then Marry Him," Says Mrs. Sam Small

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—"The question of universal concern is what is going to become of the working girl," is the opinion expressed by Mrs. Sam Small, wife of the evangelist, yesterday. "I believe in girls working who have to do so, but others who do it merely for pastime, or for finery with which to decorate themselves ought not to be employed," continued Mrs. Small. "And did you ever notice how effeminate are becoming the men whose daughters and wives help support the family? Such men love the strong, noble qualities that the care of a family produces. They become inefficient 'nobodies' and effeminate."

GIRLS LOSING THEIR MODESTY.

"Every woman on the globe ought to be interested in the future of the working girl," repeated Mrs. Small. "They are getting no good from the average woman's club. None of these clubs are so useful as formerly. It's no longer a case of elevation, but one of entertainment. The young girl members are losing all their modesty, and that will not do, because when a man loses his sentiment for a girl he loses his respect."

"Man wants to hold to the poetical idea about a girl. She is getting the wrong idea when she thinks he wants her to be his comrade."

"There is little chance for disputing my assertions, because I have studied the question from its interior. In traveling around from city to city with Mr. Small I have made it a special point to inquire from hotel waiters and others who know just how these club girls act when they are out in company."

SORRY TO SEE CLUBS INCREASE. "Clubs are on the increase, I am sorry to say," Mrs. Small observed. "There is a club for everything now, and they could accomplish a great deal of good if they were conducted properly. A peculiar thing is that wealthy women are at the head of most clubs, just the same as they fill the presiding chairs in the Daughters of the American Revolution."

"I cannot account for this, but right here we have the poor trying to emulate the rich, and there is no doubt the poor girls see these wealthy women do things that they had kept out of the field, that are possessed by the home girl. You will be impressed with their boldness and broadness when you walk into any office where they are employed. Just try it for yourself. Walk in and you will discover that while all the time they are down and proceed with their work, every girl looks up at you and makes a close inspection."

ages, but I don't wish to say anything now that will make any one snappy. "Then just think how young some of these club girls are," said Mrs. Small. "They make a great deal about child labor, and leading men and women go to the legislature and have passed laws prohibiting the employment of children under certain ages, but why don't they go to the bottom of the thing and ascertain why child labor is necessary? If they went into some of the homes and saw the drunken mothers and drunken fathers they would understand better. Oh, I could say some hard things, but I cannot afford to do so now. Those poor little creatures ought to be kept at home."

TAKE WORK TO WIN MARRIAGE. "Club girls and working girls bring on a condition that's deplorable," she continued. "Their purpose is to get married, and many of them go to work specially to accomplish that. But they first succeed in reducing men's wages, and then, and consequently have less to live."

"And after they are at work for a while you will observe that they have lost that softness, sweetness, and purity on than if they had kept out of the field, that are possessed by the home girl. You will be impressed with their boldness and broadness when you walk into any office where they are employed. Just try it for yourself. Walk in and you will discover that while all the time they are down and proceed with their work, every girl looks up at you and makes a close inspection."

"Man wants to hold to the poetical idea about a girl. She is getting the wrong idea when she thinks he wants her to be his comrade."

"There is little chance for disputing my assertions, because I have studied the question from its interior. In traveling around from city to city with Mr. Small I have made it a special point to inquire from hotel waiters and others who know just how these club girls act when they are out in company."

SORRY TO SEE CLUBS INCREASE. "Clubs are on the increase, I am sorry to say," Mrs. Small observed. "There is a club for everything now, and they could accomplish a great deal of good if they were conducted properly. A peculiar thing is that wealthy women are at the head of most clubs, just the same as they fill the presiding chairs in the Daughters of the American Revolution."

"I cannot account for this, but right here we have the poor trying to emulate the rich, and there is no doubt the poor girls see these wealthy women do things that they had kept out of the field, that are possessed by the home girl. You will be impressed with their boldness and broadness when you walk into any office where they are employed. Just try it for yourself. Walk in and you will discover that while all the time they are down and proceed with their work, every girl looks up at you and makes a close inspection."

OAKLAND WINS TWO GREAT BALL GAMES

CARLISLE MAKES RECORD OF THREE HOME-RUN DRIVES

COMMUTERS CLINCH SECOND PLACE BY BEATING ANGELS

Sensational Fielding of Van Haltren Was Feature of Morning Contest—Carlisle Stars in Afternoon.

By T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

FEATURES OF THE GAMES.

- Carlisle's three home runs.
- His running catch of Haley's hit in afternoon game.
- Van Haltren's great playing in morning.
- Record crowd of year at Oakland grounds.
- The all-round work of Carlisle.
- The rather indifferent umpiring of George Derrick.
- Bigbee's great catch of Carlisle's line drive.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

Club	Won	Lost	Pct.
Los Angeles	70	61	.534
Oakland	68	62	.523
San Francisco	62	68	.477
Portland	52	78	.400

In three instances of brilliant and happy conceptions and angelic execution, Walter Carlisle, the diminutive left fielder of the Los Angeles ball team, carved for himself a niche in the hall of baseball fame of clouting Pitcher Hogan of the Oakland team for three home runs.

This sets a record for long distance hitting on the Pacific Coast that bids fair to stand for many a year.

When one looks into Carlisle's feat he must give to the little fellow the full meed of praise. Each and every one of his homers cleared the fence and there was no doubt of the futility about them that sometimes characterizes home run drives.

So far as hitting the ball out of the grounds is concerned, the writer believes Carlisle's record is unparalleled.

DELEHANTY'S FEAT.

In a game at Chicago in the latter eighties or early nineties Ed Deleahanty, batting against Adonis Terry, made four home runs and one single out of five times at the bat. Link Lowe, while playing with Boston, is credited with tying this record.

Ted Sullivan's Waco, Texas, league team is credited with hitting a single game. In one game at Corsicana in 1903 Sullivan's boys pelted the leather for nine home runs. Of those Bateman gathered four, while a player named Wolfe got three.

These are some of the notable batting feats of baseball, but when one recollects that each and every one of Carlisle's three homers cleared the fence the remarkable quality of his record will easily be understood.

Truly yesterday was a banner baseball day for Oakland. Twice Van Haltren's men sailed out in front and won, establishing themselves solidly in second place and narrowing the margin between themselves and Los Angeles for first place.

SENSATIONAL GAMES.

Both games were sensational. There was not an idle moment in either and certainly the baseball fans had a run for their money.

From a scientific standpoint the morning game was the better of the two. Oakland, with Carnes occupying Burns on the slab, won the game 2 to 1.

The brilliant work of Van Haltren in the morning game was the feature of the game. He covered areas of territory, and at least two of his catches bordered on the sensational.

In the fifth inning, with Burns occupying second base, Carlisle lifted a low, twisting shot to the center. It hit the arm of the extra base hit, and it looked as though it would be good for at least one tally for Los Angeles. Burns began to run towards third base, while Van began to chase the ball with the speed of a coursing.

VAN'S GREAT CATCH.

When it appeared that Van Haltren's attempt would be futile, he reached down and picked the sphere off his shoe strings in time to return it to second base and double up the feeling Burns.

The cheering for this play had hardly died away when Van pulled down another very difficult chance from the bat of the hard-hitting Cravath.

Again in the eighth inning, Van brought the fans to their feet by grabbing a screaming liner from the bat of Dillon, who hits the ball with the speed and force of a pilderiver.

Van closed one of the most brilliant days in his long and useful career in the slush, when he gathered in a long fly off Jud Smith's bat. Jud was almost to second before Van was able to pull down the drive.

VAN'S BANNER DAY.

The writer has seen Van Haltren pull off brilliant fielding plays. He remembers a play of his in 1901 when Van pulled down a drive from the bat of the St. Louis Powell after the most marvelous run the writer can recollect. The fans of St. Louis cheered that play for fully fifteen minutes, but as

BREEZY CHIT CHAT OF THE GAME

Wouldn't that crowd make you sit up and take notice?

R. Harry Smith was the only baseball fan in town who didn't attend the game and he didn't attend because he was out of the city. There's a fine Irish bull for you.

It is the first time that the writer of this column has been called upon to deprecate rowdism among the fans of this city. He no more cares to chide the Oakland baseball public than he does the parents of a child, but it is a stern duty to call the attention of the Oakland public to a piece of brazen rowdism at Freeman's Park yesterday morning.

In the early part of the game some unscrupulous person shied a stone at Manager Dillon of the Los Angeles team. The manager was the first to be hit, and we are happy to record that the bulk and body of the Oakland fans decried the act and reproached the stone-thrower with jeers.

When a great player and manager of a pennant winning team and cook of the walk would kick for what he coming to him, or what he thinks is coming to him, the popular custom is to paw the poor devil.

Usually this extends no further than ungentlemanly reference to the victim's personal appearance, or in worse instances to a so-called reference to his color. We hold that it is not right to forget the gallant achievements of a man's past and it is merciful to forget his past misdeeds.

Usually the popular modus operandi is to dig up scandal and hurl it at the sufferer. Generally the fanatics hold that the sufferer has had delirium tremens since birth, that he has murdered both his parents and has had a dark, dank, delicious past, etc., etc., ad lib.

The fact is that manager's temper wears out the same as sewing machines, 1-cent socks and other articles of strenuous commerce.

Baseball is surprisingly a clean sport. It is not the game of the male hetaera, the bottle-browed slogger or the man who can see only one side to a question, and that usually the wrong one.

The dust is at least a great ball player, the best first baseman in the Coast League, a man of irreproachable habits and an artist in the pursuit of his chosen career.

The Oakland management does not care for the patronage of stone-throwers. It can get along better without them.

Who can fall to admire the daring courage a man who will hide in a dense throng and throw a stone at a visiting player?

Doesn't it take a surpassing amount of courage to rise to such an act of heroism?

Who but a hero of the proportions of St. George the Dragon slayer can screw up enough courage to attack a player and throw a stone at him out of the darkness of the throng?

If the writer were to take his pick of heroes he would choose an assassin, who under cloak of darkness thrusts his steel in the back of his victim to a stone-thrower at a ball game, for there is some chance of catching the knife-sticking assassin, while generally the stone-thrower is immune from detection.

When Happy Hogan made his daring slide for life for the plate he unroisted a portion of epidermis six inches from that portion of his anatomy which is very useful to him when he is indulging in the intellectual pastime of rehearsing flats.

If Jimmy Smith does not drive the Los Angeles players to drink it will be no fault of his. In the morning game Jimmy smacked one of Burns' spellbinders into an empty pop bottle box in the outfield. Babe Ruth could extract the ball, having no cork screw on his person, two drink-crashed fellows rambled in. And all this happened to poor Burns while his Point Richmond friends were on the job ready to die or burst a vocal chord in cheering for their favorite.

If Jimmy were to screw up enough courage and disturbing the peace and quiet of the offensive drink recognizing the fact that he is in the morning game.

Beavers Defeat The Seals Twice

PORTLAND, August 19.—The Beavers got to work yesterday and as a result of their new state of being handed two defeats to the San Francisco Seals. In the morning game Portland won by a score of 5 to 3, and in the afternoon they came right back and repeated 7 to 2.

In the morning game Kinsella out-pitched Joy, while in the afternoon Hartmann had the better of the argument with Jones.

The Seals played far from what might be termed a high-class article of baseball. The scores:

Any culprit out of a job may secure one by applying to Umpire George Derrick.

Despite the high dive that Carlisle took into the dust at San Francisco's last night, yesterday afternoon his face shined about the same. He found the dust much softer than Battling Nelson found the kid-gloved fist of James Edward Bird recently.

Bearing in mind Queen Eiliukalan's lack of success as an author, Barney Joy will probably not write a book.

According to a new sect, the "flying rollers," we are living in the closing age of the world. Who gives a hang? We saw both ball games yesterday.

Our Hogan sprang on the back of Los Angeles' Hogan at the plate and almost wrecked that punctious person's bloomers.

During the course of the game our esteemed guide, friend and philosopher, Charlie Bennett, was heard to remark that Umpire Derrick wouldn't know a strike if it was borne to him on a silver platter, bearing a letter of introduction from the President of the United States.

Van Haltren celebrated the double victory by choking eight owls to death last night.

Some of the fans in the stand observing the color of Van Haltren's hair began to refer to him as (Rapp) Barry.

The fans are beginning to regret that Henry is not one of them and able to see at first hand what Derrick is doing to them.

Dashwood howled like a hungry sea lion all yesterday morning in the hope of inducing his pals to man the chief citizen Burns in the left field. It made the fans and Buggettes sit up and howl same as Wild Willie's act when he lifts a nickel from the ground astride a wild and rambunctious broncho in full flight, with the aid only of his bare mitt.

From an acrobatic angle this stunt was not going to tip off the crowd. It made the Bugs and Buggettes sit up and howl same as Wild Willie's act when he lifts a nickel from the ground astride a wild and rambunctious broncho in full flight, with the aid only of his bare mitt.

Van Haltren's great act with his face aided and abetted by his spitting might well be termed the feature of the afternoon struggle.

Happy Hogan's rousing brother is in our midst. Young Hag is learning to fill his pants with so much water that when he goes to the bathroom he has to wait for the water to drain out.

JIM MAY OFFERS $35,000 FOR BURNS AND JOHNSON

Reno Man Would Match Black and White Champions—Fans Visit Fighters Training Camps.

(BY EDDIE SMITH.)

Tommy Burns is back from Nevada, where he has been with his vaudeville show for the past two weeks. Tommy is full of praise for Nevada, where he was treated with great consideration.

Burns brings the startling news that Jim May, the Reno sportsman, who offered $35,000 for the Britt-Gans match, will offer $35,000 for a match between him and Jack Johnson.

If the offer was made by most any other Nevada man we would be inclined to suspect the motive, but coming from May, who has always proven himself a game fellow, always willing to take a chance, we are inclined to believe that if the arrangements can be made that he will go through with his bid.

It is proposed to hold the contest on Thanksgiving Day in the open air, the time being too short to hope to arrange the details for the meeting for Labor Day.

This would make it appear that Burns and Johnson will come together, the champion having on several occasions stated that he was willing to meet the dusky champion any time the proper inducements were made.

It was Burns' contention that if a contest between Burns and Gans was worth $35,000 that a contest between himself and Johnson was worth just as much. The Burns-Johnson contest is just as good a drawing card for Nevada as Britt and Gans, and if May could afford to offer the big purse that he did for the smaller men, he can make good with the big fellows.

For some reason, unknown to the writer, Jack Johnson has received more boosting for the past few years than any other fighter in the business. Certainly he has never done anything to warrant it. The dusky fighter has been so well advertised, however, that he is now a drawing card with any one, and with the champion of the world, a man that many think he has a chance to beat, he would prove a great card.

If the match is made Burns will no doubt get the long end of the purse win or lose or draw. To justify his claim for the long end of the purse, Tommy advances a very sound argument to the long end of the purse for the reason that I believe that I am entitled to the long end of the purse for the reason that I am the only champion for many years who has given a colored heavyweight a chance to get to the top of the heap. Then, too, Johnson has been looking for a chance at good money for years, and of all the fighters, even including Jeffries, I am the only one to give him a chance.

Tommy's argument is a just one and no one who will blame him for trying to get the long end of the purse; in fact, the colored fighter would think it rather funny if he did not demand it.

Some time ago Jimmy Coffroth offered $20,000 for the contest, but Burns had out for more money. It was supposed by many of his friends that he was making a mistake in not taking the Colma offer, but the Canadian appeared satisfied to wait for better offers.

When Tommy left for Nevada, it will be remembered that we predicted that we would come back with a match. He no sooner opened with his show at Reno than he was in consultation with May regarding a fight with Johnson, and the above offer is the result of that conference.

Burns will leave for Detroit probably Friday or Saturday night, where he is billed to go, what the place is called the "wheel."

If the Johnson match is arranged Burns will go to Reno about the first of November in order that he will become thoroughly acclimated before the battle.

Oakland Wins at Sacramento Dog Lacrosse Game Wins the Stake

Five to three was the score in favor of the Oakland lacrosse players in the game which took place at Recreation Park in San Francisco yesterday afternoon between Oakland and the Olympics after the conclusion of the baseball game.

Clarkson proved the star for the Oakland team, scoring all of the Oakland team's five goals, while Lynch scored the entire three for the Olympics and was easily the feature of his team.

The first quarter produced only one run, although the goal was in danger on more than one occasion.

O'Keefe worked the ball through a crowd of opponents and passed to Clarkson, who had merely to shoot for goal and score.

The second quarter found the Olympics on the offensive, but the exorable shooting by Gibson, Harding, Eaton and Minto let them a goal in the rear. Then the transbay stickers got to work in earnest and Clarkson, receiving again from O'Keefe, deftly placed the ball where it counted. The same player doubled on level feet four minutes later, drawing a wonderful piece of work on his own account. Before the half-time gong sounded the club team found the net, but the goal judge did not see the point.

On resuming the Olympic homes made many sallies on the Oakland goal and finally the referee's efforts met with reward, Lynch doing the needful with a pretty shot. Then the "boys in green" came again and the irresistible Clarkson placed his side two goals further ahead. Thurborg, O'Keefe and O'Reilly were, however, mainly responsible for these points, as they secured the ball from the Olympics and sped it into the net.

The last period of the game was all in favor of the "Winged O's" and only the excellent defense of Peterson, McMahon and Judge prevented the drawling on level terms. Lynch showed himself to be the only legitimate inside forward of the team by grabbing all the points, and it is remarkable that his only three shots of the game yielded goals.

The game was nip and tuck throughout and was tied at 2-all up to the ninth inning.

In the tenth inning Baumgarten, who twirled for the "TRIBUNE," struck out the side.

In the tenth inning the "TRIBUNE" batters, who had been picking "Adonis" Cox's gallery freely throughout the game, kept up their tick and Macdonald and Saxton, by clean hits to the outfield, succeeded in putting the winning run over the plate.

Baumgarten played a star game for the "TRIBUNE" team, and his efforts may be given credit for the "TRIBUNE" victory. Feeney played a good game as second base. Paul Shinn played good taggings for the "TRIBUNE" team.

Howard Saxton played a very neat game at shortstop for the winning team. Score by innings of baseballs and runs:

JUDGE HARRIS ARRESTED; DECLARES IT "HOLD-UP"

"Simply Graft," Says Jurist When Taken Before Court, of Alleged Violation of Auto-Speed Ordinance.

Marin county, in the vicinity of Sausalito, has fallen into line in the hold-up of automobilists on the alleged charge that they have exceeded the maximum rate of speed which is allowed on the roads of that county, namely, ten miles an hour. Three drivers of motor cars, who were driving on the coast road, were the latest victims. They were held up by Judge Harris, who was on duty at the time. The judge was taken before court, where he was charged with violating the auto-speed ordinance. He declared it was "simply graft."

"HOLD-UP," SAYS HARRIS.
"It was simply a case of 'hold-up,'" said Judge Harris in speaking of the matter today to a "TRUTHFUL" reporter. "I was on duty at the time. I was taken before court, where I was charged with violating the auto-speed ordinance. I declared it was 'simply graft.'"

THREATENS TO SHOOT.
"If you attempt to move," said Judge Harris, "I'll shoot your tire full of holes." "Well, we all turned back to the office of the justice. On the way we met Mr. Williams, who was formerly a resident of this city. We told him what had happened. He said he would go with us to the justice's office. The judge said, 'You people seem to be all right and I don't see any reason why you should not be allowed to go on your own recognizance.'"

BREEZY NEWS OF TURF

By LEE DEMIER.

Owner W. J. Maxwell will be on hand at Petaluma with a few useful performances. The noted horseman has been campaigning through Denver and Butte.

Zeak Abrams has a two-year contract on Jockey Mander which he secured during the Denver meet.

Aunt Polly has developed into a hindoo at the Meadows.

It is said that Charley McCafferty is acting as bookmaker Jim Davis' betting commissioner at the Meadows. According to the way McCafferty's horses have been running Davis must be a bunch loser.

Rumor has it that Starter Arthur McKnight will alternate with Dick Dwyer at Williams Park this winter. This sure would be a good move on the part of the jockey club.

Reader-Barney Schreiber still retains half interest in Miss Officious.

Royal Onyx, with Jockey Liberty in the boot, won the Morrisana handicap, which was the feature event at Empire City Saturday.

The J. R. Keene stable has already won over $250,000 in purses and stakes this season. Keene is liable to win another $100,000.

News comes from Seattle that Owner Harry Mack has challenged Superintendent Jim Grant to fight him a duel for destroying his garden in front of his stable at Williams Park. The weapons chosen will be coffee and doughnuts.

Jockeys L. Williams and Lycurgus each rode a winner at Empire City Saturday. The former piloted Bounding Elk and the latter Running Account to victory.

The dispute as to who was entitled to first call on El Dugan, now that Durnell has not use for his services until his apprenticeship time expires in September, has been settled by the New York Jockey Club stewards in favor of R. T. Wilson Jr.

William Murray, who is now at Butte, has been asked to do the starting at the Norfolk meeting, which is to open August 22.

Jockey L. Williams has signed a contract to ride for Capt. J. T. Williams.

News comes from Los Angeles that Emperor of Norfolk, the greatest horse of modern times on the American turf, is dying at E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin's Santa Anita ranch. Experts say that his life is now only the question of a very short time. The horse has selected one of the most beautiful dells of the ranch for a burial place for the Emperor and will place over his body a costly monument recording his achievements on the course.

Horseman Ollie Johnson hit the Sausalito poolrooms Saturday to the tune of $2000 on the win of Miss Officious.

Advices from Seattle say that Charley McCafferty has created a home for himself. The new institution will be known as "the Booster's Inn."

Little Willie, the office boy, made no mistake when he picked Logistilla to win the handicap at the Meadows Saturday. Ed Saul's mare was just beaten for first money.

Rumors have it that there will be another race track near Seattle. Let the good work go on.

THE TRIBUNE was the only paper that picked Miss Officious to win the handicap.

Al Smith (Western Al), and Ollie Johnson visited Charles Booth's ranch yesterday. They took their lunch with them.

It will be Judge Dick Hanes and Arthur Bennett at Petaluma.

Umpire Mixes With Manager

A row between Manager Schroeder of the Oakland State League team, and Umpire Phil Knell marred the game at Alameda yesterday. Oakland finally won the contest by a score of 6 to 4. Knell tried to reach third, and Knell declared him safe. He certainly did not see the play and Knell was to parcel out four hits off his delivery. Schroeder scored the only run of the game in the fifth inning.

WILLS FOR TWO DISTRICTS WALL STREET.

OAKLAND HARBOR NEWS

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

WILLS, Aug. 12.—Manhattan and Mount Pleasant are to secure mills. The mill for Manhattan is to be built on the ground of the Wolfersberg & Philadelphia estate, represented by J. S. Lamm. It is to be a custom mill in all respects, and when it is in operation, the same are said to be rapidly increasing. The mill for Mount Pleasant is to be built on the ground of the Manhattan Ore Reducing and Smelting Company, which is in operation about the middle of September, and this will give a momentum to the camp, the mills will not be put to rest by any other agency.

In Round Mountain the mill planned for to be put up on the same ground, and the building of the mill is in active operation, and plenty of millmen in the vicinity from which to draw labor. When the mill is in operation, the mill will be turned over, and not only will the gold be washed up, but it is expected that new lodes will be exposed.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Professional Liberal selling on close counted some reactions, but prices generally maintained their highest.

Consolidated selling resulted in Union Pacific falling slightly below Saturday's closing and reduced the rise to a fraction in Reading, Amalgamated Copper, Smelting and other favorites. Dealers' securities yielded 4-1/2 and Northwestern preferred 5.

IS ROMANTIC LOVE DYING?

College Professor Decries Modern Method of Entering the Marital State.

CHAUTAQUA, Aug. 19.—Present marriage and family conditions were scored as far below what they should be among Christians by Professor Shailer Mathews, dean of the University of Chicago Divinity School, in an address on "The Christian Conception of the Family," at Chautauqua Assembly. The business and frequency of divorce also came in for scathing rebuke. He declared also that courtship is being neglected, and said that we go into family relations with the same indifference with which we go on a picnic.

OLD LOVE BEST

"There is a tendency to replace the idea of romantic love, which gives beauty to life, with the old way of courtship. I regret and deplore it. It is likely to break down our civilization and the sanctity of the family. Divorce is increasing with alarming rapidity. The conditions are much the same today as in the days of Jesus, when the divorcee was a social outcast. Divorce is becoming so common that a man might divorce his wife merely because she was not a good enough cook. So with us the family has become a mere conventionalism and a matter of personal convenience. There are many young men and women who are growing up with the idea that marriage, while it may not be simultaneously at least may be successfully polyandrous and polygamous. You hear of divorces because of incompatibility of temper. Is incompatibility of temper possible in a Christian family? We fail to take our family relations with sufficient seriousness."
